Communication:

Incumbents have regular responsibility for interaction with a broad range of people, both in individual and group settings. Contacts may be within the library organization, with the general public, or with other county agencies, volunteers, or organizations. Communications frequently contain confidential/sensitive information. Confidential record keeping is limited to hiring, staff performance evaluations and disciplinary actions necessitating discretion. Collaboration and cooperation must be established to accomplish assigned tasks. Occasional formal presentations to groups are a part of job responsibilities.

Initiative:

Incumbents plan and develop direction and procedures for PSA service and professional service delivery, ensuring compliance with KCLS overall policies and procedures. Positions in this classification are responsible for some development of new programs and services by direct reports in assigned specialties. Incumbents operate under some supervision for new or unusual situations or assignments. Work regularly calls for problem solving and recommendations within assigned areas of responsibilities, both in a consensus format as well as independently. The job involves a high degree of complexity, with incumbents operating independently under minimal supervision for new or unusual situations or assignments. Decisions are made within general organizational policy constraints and guidelines.

Accountability:

Position is responsible for planning as a participant in group planning activities within the cluster, with service-based strategic planning at the facility and cluster levels. The position makes decisions that have impact focused on service delivery within assigned specialties. Supervisor occasionally monitors work. An error in work and/or judgment may adversely impact operational consistency; staff productivity; or service provision to patrons, resulting in loss of public support. Position provides budget development input and may be accountable for supply budgets.

Leadership:

This position is expected to function in a strong leadership role by clearly demonstrating and acting in accordance with library values. The position assists in the communication of the library vision, values, policies and procedures. This position serves as a role model and mentor for library staff.
